FUEL, E&P Win at 2010 FOLIO: Awards

FUEL took home three Eddie Awards:

1. Gold for Best Single Article, B-to-B, Energy/Utilities/Engineering for "Flying on Alternatives" by Louise Poirier from the June 2009 issue;
2. Silver for Best Single Article, B-to-B, Energy/Utilities/Engineering for "Pursuing Next Generation Biofuels" by Louise Poirier from the December 2009 issue. Poirier previously won the prestigious Gold Eddie Award in the same category in 2008 for a FUEL article on crude oil supply and demand; and
3. Bronze for Best Single Issue, B-to-B, Energy/Utilities/Engineering for the December 2009 issue.

In the category of Best Online News Coverage, E&P won Bronze for its in-depth coverage of the BP oil disaster in the Gulf of Mexico.

FOLIO: magazine's awards drew more than 2,000 entries, which more than 100 expert judges spent weeks evaluating.

"We are proud whenever our team's work is recognized," said Richard Eichler, Hart Energy president and CEO, "but we are particularly honored to win FOLIO awards because the competition is world-class. Just being a finalist is an honor; winning is extraordinary."

Published quarterly, FUEL provides forward-thinking information and analysis about the entire global fuels business, including refining, transportation, sustainability, public policy, finance and investment, and biofuels. www.hartfuel.com
